

ALBURY WODONGA TERTIARY EVENING 2015

TUESDAY JUNE 16

6.00pm - 8.00pm

Dear Parents and Students: On Tuesday 16 June, the Albury Wodonga Career Advisers Association in conjunction with both the University Admissions Centre (UAC), and the Victorian Tertiary Admissions Centre (VTAC) will be holding a community information session to inform parents and prospective students about relevant university, TAFE, and independent tertiary college application processes.

In addition to the information sessions, a number of local and metropolitan tertiary providers will be available to speak directly to students and parents about the courses they provide, scholarships, accommodation, pathway programs, and student services. This event is a perfect opportunity for students and parents to gather all the information they need to make informed decisions about their future pathway options.

Current exhibitors include: Charles Sturt University, La Trobe University, Riverina TAFE, Wodonga TAFE, Macquarie University, University of Wollongong, Deakin University, Australian National University, Australian Catholic University, Federation University, Australian Academy of Interactive Entertainment, Photography Studies College, and more!
