Wodonga Schools Arts Festival

Last week schools from Wodonga and the surrounding region celebrated with it's annual festival. The week long event saw primary school students perform various acts and musical numbers throughout the week. Students from both Wodonga Middle Years College and Wodonga Senior Secondary College assisted with the sound and lighting of the event throughout the week.

Fundraising Trivia Night

The College Student Leadership Council hosted a fundraising trivia night last Friday in the Year 12 study centre. Student, parents and staff were welcomed to the event last week with the $500 raised going to the College wellbeing support fund.

The event has become an annual fixture in the College calendar with various student groups taking up the challenge to host the event each year.
